MESSAGE FROM

NANCY NOBLE

DIRECTOR/CEO

CAROL ANNE HARPER

BOARD PRESIDENT

As we reflect on the 2025/26 year at the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria and all that we have done Together in Art, we are grateful for the people that bring art experiences to our Gallery and our community. We thank and recognize the work of our staff, board, members, Gallery Associates, volunteers, donors, supporters and most importantly, the artists.

Our permanent galleries, featuring A View From Here continue to be popular and allow visitors to explore highlights from our collection. Temporary exhibitions at the Gallery included Architectures of Protection, Fifty Shades of Ink: Paintings from the AGGV Collection, and Dangerous Beauty: The Prints of Albrecht Dürer. It was an honour to host the travelling exhibitions; Meryl McMaster: Bloodline and ਸ਼ੀਸ਼ੇ 'ਚ ਤਰੇੜ | sheeshe 'ch thareṛ | a crack in the mirror. Film screenings in the Drury Gallery have proven to be a welcome addition and last summer we were pleased to host Lekwungen: Place to Smoke Herring, a film by Brianna Bear and Eli Hirtle.

Urbanite returned to the AGGV on a beautiful spring evening in April of 2025, and it was a rousing success with calls for the return of more editions of the popular event. In June, we held the BIPOC Teen Art Residency Show, a culmination of nine months of collaboration between teen artists and local contemporary BIPOC artists who work in various mediums.

On July 19, we “painted the town” with the 36th annual Art Gallery Paint-In, once again breaking attendance records and fulfilling our mandate of bringing art to the community. Our new school programs have filled the Gallery with children’s laughter and creativity, and our Feel Free program, generously supported by TD Bank Group, has expanded accessibility and increased visitation. The Gallery is a lively and creative hub of cultural activities.

For the 10th year we administered the Takao Tanabe Prize for BC Painters, which was awarded to two artists: Lauren Crazybull and Sheri Paisley. We are looking forward to hosting Takao Tanabe: Inside Passage, co-organized with the AGGV, the Audain Art Museum, and the National Gallery of Canada, the exhibition will run at the Gallery from May 29 through October 10, 2027.

We were pleased to welcome William Boothman, as our Director of Finance, Will’s experience in the not-for-profit sector has been a great benefit and he is a wonderful addition to the team.

We also realized a significant milestone towards building a new Gallery in downtown Victoria. The proposal to rezone the lands around the Capital Iron building, in the new Industry, Arts & Innovation District, submitted to the City by Reliance Properties, was approved unanimously following a public hearing on January 8, 2026.

We are invigorated by this decision and the enthusiastic community and Council support for the Gallery as we take the next steps to create a transformative Gallery that will help shape downtown Victoria. We’ll keep members informed of significant milestones along the way.

We look forward to seeing you at the Gallery and hope that you continue to enjoy our exhibitions and programs.

“Though it originated at The Reach Gallery Museum in Abbotsford, Anand’s vision at the heart of A Crack in the Mirror is universal.”

Mike Devlin
Victoria Times Colonist

“Ink painting, it’s a thousand-year-old tradition, but still it’s quite alive today,” says AGGV Asian art curator Dr. Heng Wu. “I’ve seen people, even on this island, are so passionate about practicing it still. So I think that’s also very relevant to our life today.”

PROGRAMS

AGGV programs are designed and offered to inspire visitors and participants while providing opportunities to connect more deeply with the themes and considerations in each of the exhibitions.

Public Programs

Public programs are offered to connect visitors most directly with the activities in the Gallery, primarily through artists and curators. These programs range from the Gallery's seasonal exhibition opening celebrations that welcome hundreds of community members, to the Art Gallery Paint-In festival that drew 50,000+ attendants in 2025, to more intimate opportunities such as exhibitions lectures, conversations and tours.

AGGV STUDIO

A cornerstone of the Gallery's activities, the AGGV Studio has connected participants with artwork and artmaking since the Gallery's inception. One-off and multi-session classes are designed for children, youth, and adults with a focus on building critical thinking skills and visual literacy.

198 classes
2,013 participants

SCHOOL TOURS & WORKSHOPS

Designed for students Grades 2–12, the School Program allows for inquiry-based explorations with a tour of the exhibitions, followed by a hands-on workshop. For enhanced engagement, Teacher's Guides are available on the AGGV website.

BIPOC TEEN ART RESIDENCY

The Gallery offered BIPOC Teen Art Residency again this year, which saw 10 youth come together monthly and learn from other BIPOC artists and arts professionals about contemporary art-making approaches while broadening voices represented in the Gallery's programming.

Artist who mentored BIPOC youth include:

Kemi Craig, Program Coordinator
Charles Amartey, Program Facilitator
Randy Babichuk
Jefrey Ellom (Pesewa)
Fatima Tajah Olson
Taylor Panell

SOUNDTRACK

From October to June, Soundtrack celebrates the powerful interplay between art and music. In collaboration with the Victoria Conservatory of Music and the Victoria Symphony's vsNew program, the AGGV provides a platform for emerging musicians to compose original works inspired by the Gallery's collection.

ART RENTAL + SALES

The Art Rental + Sales program presents an ever-evolving selection of high-quality, original works by emerging and established local artists. Revenue from this program directly supports local artists and AGGV exhibitions and programs. In addition to rotating displays of artworks, five Show & Sales were shared in the Massey Gallery: Timeless Visions, Summer Small Works, Inside/Out(side), Winter Small Works, and In Your Element.

In 2025/2026 the Art Rental + Sales program included 74 artists, and approximately 80 open-call artists in each annual Summer and Winter Small Works Show & Sale.

THE GALLERY SHOP

The Gallery Shop aspires to have something for everyone, every budget and every taste, and hosts a unique assortment of gifts that have been chosen to complement and support the current exhibitions in the Gallery spaces. The Shop has built strong relationships with island artisans and artists with a focus on Canadian products. Revenue from this program directly supports artists, AGGV exhibitions, and programs.

In 2025/2026 the Gallery Shop offered items by 130+ consignors, 40+ Indigenous artists, with 90% of Shop products being purchased in Canada.

VOLUNTEERS

Our volunteers donated thousands of hours to the Gallery throughout the 2025/26 fiscal year. This level of commitment is remarkable and makes the AGGV a better place.

Volunteers contributed their time in the Gallery Shop, in the archives, to Family Sunday and School Programs, at various receptions and events, and at the AGGV's biggest community event, the Art Gallery Paint-In.

KENT MONKMAN'S WATERCOLOUR STUDY FOR CONSTELLATION OF KNOWLEDGE (COBALT)

KENT MONKMAN, WATERCOLOUR STUDY FOR CONSTELLATION OF KNOWLEDGE (COBALT), 2022, WATERCOLOUR ON ACID-FREE PAPER. PURCHASED 2023. PHOTO: KENT MONKMAN STUDIO

Throughout December, we are showcasing works from the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria. The AGGV Collection comprises more than 22,000 pieces, making it the largest public art collection in British Columbia.

This work developed from Kent Monkman's connections to Indigenous science and knowledge, including astronomy, botany and archeology. It embodies the Cree concept of âcimowinak: stories that hold ancestral truths and histories, derived from knowledge of the stars, spirit, medicine, science, ceremony, art and laughter. The artist was inspired by deep conversations with knowledge keeper, Cree star expert and Opaskwayak Cree Nation member Wilfred Buck.

The Globe and Mail

The Art Gallery of Greater Victoria was the first BC gallery chosen to be featured on page A2 daily for the month of December 2025, putting the AGGV in the national spotlight. This recognition offered exceptional exposure for Victoria on a national stage and highlighted the vibrant cultural offerings in our community.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

The Art Gallery of Greater Victoria (AGGV) maintained a stable overall financial position during fiscal 2026 despite continued economic pressures impacting the arts and culture sector, including inflationary operating costs and ongoing uncertainty in earned revenue streams.

For the year ended March 31, 2026, total revenues were $4.2 million compared to $4.6 million in 2025, representing a decrease of approximately 8.3%. The decline was primarily attributable to lower interest income, reduced retail services revenue, and lower fundraising and membership contributions. Grant revenue remained stable at $1.23 million, continuing to provide an important and consistent source of operational support.

Total expenses increased modestly from $4.3 million in 2025 to $4.4 million in 2026, an increase of approximately 0.8%. Inflationary pressures continued to impact staffing, facility operations, and program delivery costs. New Gallery expenses totaled $451,064 in 2026 compared to $302,471 in 2025, reflecting continued planning and project development activity.

Overall, the Gallery recorded a consolidated deficiency of revenue over expenses in 2026 compared to a surplus in 2025. Despite the operating shortfall, the Gallery's overall financial position remains strong. Total assets remained stable at $15 million. During the year, the Board moved the net assets of two funds from the Restricted Funds to The Capital Fund. The Restricted Funds was also renamed "Art Acquisition & Curatorial Funds" to better reflect the purposes of these funds.

Management continues to focus on prudent financial stewardship, diversification of revenue sources, and long-term sustainability while advancing the Gallery's mission of exhibitions, education, collections stewardship, and community engagement.
